

Access to Justice held Media Briefing on the 14th of October 2009, over the brutal killings of three innocent young men by Police officers attached to Adekunle Police Station, in Yaba, Lagos State on the 1st of October 2009. Below: Legal Programmes Attorney at Access to Justice, Mrs. Destina Dalumo reading out the Media Statement over the brutal killings. Click here for more news and pictures.

Below: AJ's Executive Director, Joseph Otteh fielding questions from agents of the Press and TV reporters, during the Media Briefing over the random killings by officers of the Nigerian Police.

Below: Angry youths engage in peaceful protest over the killings of the three innocent young men as well as other instances of extra-judicial killings by the police and other security operatives in the country. They march with placards around Alagomeji street in Yaba, Lagos State, were the shootings occurred (venue of the media briefing).

Father and son of the late Mr. Ibrahim Olojede, one of the three deceased persons, killed by Police Officers on the 1st of October 2009.